Dress Down/ Up Days:

Throughout the year Communion of Saints will have student dress-down and/or dress up days for various reasons. Some of these days will be themed and others will be spirit days. When students are permitted to be out of uniform, these rules must be followed.

No inappropriate words, designs, or pictures on any clothing.

No tops that are revealing, have low cut necklines, or expose bare midriffs when sitting, stretching, bending over, or stooping.

No tank tops, sleeveless tops, or ones with thin narrow top straps.

No pants with rips or holes showing skin or any pants with writing on the back.
Pants may not be worn low or sagging .
No skirts or dresses shorter than top of knee unless worn with leggings.
Leggings may not be worn with just a blouse or sweater top.
Leggings may only be worn under a skirt or dress.
No short shorts may be worn. Shorts should be appropriate length.
Capri style pants may be worn.

On spirit days or other special celebrations, school spirit wear may be worn. Students who do not have spirit wear, may wear shirts with school colors.

No flip-flops, slides, sandals of any kind, crocks, no work boots, or shoes with heels

On special occasions students will have the option to dress up.

Parents understand that once they enroll at Communion of Saints School, a school uniform is mandatory and is to be worn properly. When students wear clothing that does not meet the dress code or uniform regulations, parents may be required to provide regulation clothing by bringing it up to the school. It is the responsibility of the parents to make sure their children are wearing the uniform and wearing it properly. Principal's decision is final.
